

- o. shell holder. 3. 69.28
- p. automatic prime tool. 1. $5.50
- q. powder. 15 lbs. 49.57
- r. shotgun powder. 4 8 lb. kgs. 92.00
- s. case lubricant. 36. $19.00
- t. case trimmer. 1. $10.63
- u. pilot (.223) 1. 4.74
- v. bullet puller. 1. 12.79
- w. primer pocket cleaner. 10. 20.00
- x. puller collet. 1. 12.49

These items, which are already purchased, total $7,078.75. Other reloading supplies are in Denver waiting to be picked up or on its way, hopefully, in the near future.

Reloading Supplies and Equipment in Denver

- a. 20 lb. kegs of rifle powder. 63. $3119.03
- b. 1 lb. cans of pistol powder. 300. $1,150.50
- c. .223 dies. 5 pair. 255.00
- d. collats for bullets. 3. 17.16
- e. 30.06 bullets to load. 40,600. $1,969.51
- f. 357 bullets to load. 6,600. $216.35

The total waiting in Denver, $6,501.55.

Reloading Supplies and Equipment Ordered but Not Yet Shipped

- a. .223 bullets. 200,000. $6,292.00
- b. rifle primers for .223. 100,000. 1790.00
- c. 357 magnum bullets. 31,000. $1,016.18

This totals $8,099.03.

The importance of the order waiting in Denver thus becomes obvious—without it, we eliminate the vast proportion of our reloading supplies. The .223 bullets, rifle powder, and dies, and primers, are especially important to our security as outlined above.

000199